

PRESS RELEASE #2. November 2020

Building resilience and enhancing the intercultural competencies of refugees and asylum seekers through theatre techniques

About the project

The Go Up project aims to boost the participation of refugees, asylum seekers and migrants in adult education supporting teachers, educators and counsellors with tailor made innovative methodologies and tools designed to build resilience and enhance intercultural competencies through theatre techniques. To do so, the Theatre of the Oppressed has proved for decades its effectiveness addressing the social and psychological effects associated with social vulnerability.

Six partners from Greece, Ireland, Portugal Spain and Turkey –Adult Education and VET providers, NGOs and social and cultural organizations– have worked together developing the following project results:

- Go Up Online Digital Database of good practices and resources in Intercultural and Inclusive Theatre.
- Training Curriculum for Intercultural and Inclusive Theatre. An ECVET based curriculum for the assessment, validation and recognition of learning outcomes.
- Go Up Pedagogical Handbook providing innovative pedagogical and methodological approaches on the use of theatre techniques to teach intercultural competencies and support the cultural integration of refugees, asylum seekers and migrants.
- Go Up Toolbox including a set of practical contents, activities and methods on Intercultural and Inclusive Theatre aimed at adult education teachers, trainers, tutors and counsellors

Multiplier Events and Final Conference

Go Up methodologies and outputs has been tested and successfully evaluated by target users and beneficiaries during the piloting phase carried out in all participant countries

The project aims, outputs and results will be detailed explained during the national multiplier events and the final conference to be organized in December 2020.

If you are interested in attending these events, please contact your local partner.
